Dull, Faded or Lifeless Hair Quickly Restored to its Natural Beauty

If your hair is anything short of perfect; if it is losing color, too dry, brittle, thin, or if the scalp burns and itches, you should immediately begin the use of Parisian Sage. The first application of this safe and al-ways reliable tonic removes every trace of dandruff, cools and invigor-stes the scalp and beautifies the hair until it is gloriously radiant. Parislan Sage supplies all hair needs and does not injure either the hair or scalp. It contains the exact elements needed to make the hair soft and wavy, and to make it grow long, thick and beautiful. It is a del-icately-perfumed liquid—not sticky

r greasy—that can be had at Lee Osgood's or any drug counter. Parisian Sage acts instantly—one application stops the head from itching and freshens up the hair. You will be surprised and delighted with this helpful tollet necessity, for and scalp, and nothing so quickly beautifies the hair, giving it that enviable charm and fascination. Paris-ian Sage is one of the quickest acting hair tonics known—inexpensive

To Look and Feel Bright in Hot Weather

This is the season when she who rould have a filly-white complexion hould turn her thoughts to mercolized eax, the firm friend of the summer irl. Nothing so effectually overcomes he soiling effects of sun, wind, dust and dirt. The wax literally absorbs the corched, discolored, freckled, withered in coarsened cuticle, bringing forth a rand new skin, clear, soft and girlish, beautiful. It also unclogs the pores, emoving blackheads and increasing the skin's breathing capacity. An unce of mercolized wax, obtainable at my drug store, applied nightly like old cream, and washed off mornings, fill gradually improve the worst com-lexion. plexion.

When depressed by the heat and you want to freshen up for the afternoon or evening, bathe the face in a lotton made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint witch hazel. You'll find this more refreshing than an hour's rest. It is fine for smoothing out wrinkles, even the deeper ones.

POETRY BE MEN.

Did you tackle the trouble that came with a resolute heart and cheerful, or hide your face from the light of With a craven soul and fearful, Oh, a trouble, a ton of trouble's an ounce.
Or a trouble is what you make it.
And it isn't the fact of your hurt that But only how did you take it?

You are beaten to earth,
Well, well, what's that?
Come up with a smilling face,
It's nothing against you to fall down
flat,
But to lie there, that's the disgrace.
The harder you're thrown the higher
you'll bounce,
Be proud of your blackened eye.
It lan't the fact that you're licked
that counts,
It's how did you fight, and why?

And the you be done to death, what If you battled your part in the world of men, Why, the critic will call that good. Death comes with a crawl, or comes with a pounce, But whether he's slow or spry. It isn't the fact you're dead that counts. But only, how did you die?

Unidentified.

LIGHT IN DARKNESS.

Why live, when life is sad , Death only sweet
Why fight, when closest fight
Ends in defeat?
Why pray, when in purest prayer
Dark thoughts assall? Dark thoughts assall?
Why strive, and strive again,
Only to fail?
Live, there are many round
Needing thy care:
Pray, there is One at hand
Helping thy prayer;
Fight, for the love of God.
Not for renown;
Strive, but in his great strength,
Not in thine own.

Why hope, when life has proved Our best hopes vain? Why love when love is fraught With so much pain? Why not cool heart and brain

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Judge-What's this? Can't pay your rent? Is it owing to the war?
Old lady—No, sir. It's owing to the andlord,—London Opinion. What! You are eating crabs just at the time they are most expensive?"
"Yes, I always have bad luck; when they are cheap I have no money."—

Munich Fliegende Blaetter. Maggie-I wouldn't marry one of Maggie—I wouldn't marry one of hem Scottles, not for a fortune. Aggie—Why? Maggie—'Cos look at the trouble rou'd have to keep 'ls knees polished!

Cartoon. Yankee-If someone were so ill-adised as to call you a liar, colonel, in hat light would you regard the act! Kentucky colonel—I would regard it imply as a form of suicide, sah.— Dallas News.

Caller-Your daughter is quite opular; isn't she? Magazine editor—My boy, she's st sopular that she has to use printed rejection slips in declining her offers of marriage.—Puck. "Could you be satisfied with love in a cottage, dearest?" sighed the poor young man.

"Certainly I could," responded the girl, who really loved him; "but there must be a breakfast-room, a music room, paquetry flooring and a big marble fireplace in the front hall."-He had used persuasion and argument in vain. At last he said, in desperation:

"Edwidge, if you will marry me I will take out half million francs of life insurance; if I die, you will be safe from want." "Yes," was the reply, "but what if ou don't die?"—Kansas City Star.

YOUR GRAY HAIR NEEDS LeMAY'S SAGE AND QUININE

Guaranteed by Lee & Osgood To Restore Gray or Faded Hair to Its Natural, Youthful Color or Money Back.

The demand for gray haired men and women is growing less all the time, and in periods of industrial depression the man or woman whose hair is turning gray is the first to be dropped.

Don't let gray hair lose you your job—one week's application of LeMay's Sage and Quinine will show you that gray hair need not be, and that you can have lustrous hair of natural color and no one will know you are using anything. A large I-ounce bottle can have lustrous hair of natural color and no one will know you are using anything. A large I-ounce bottle can be obtained for not more than 50 cents at Lee & Osgood Co's and druggists generally.

A generous trial sample bottle for 10 cents by mail only from LeMay Chemical Co., Rochester, N. Y.
